

12. Malignant Hyperthermia

- Testing for malignant hyperthermia may be commissioned for people who have experienced features of the disorder, or who have a first degree relative who is confirmed to have the disorder, or who (intermediate relatives having died) have a genetic risk exceeding 5%